Equality Awareness SERIES

Save the Date

Change is on the horizon. Proposals for new discrimination legislation are being developed by the Committee for Employment & Social Security. The proposals will cover grounds not previously covered in Guernsey legislation like disability, race, age and sexual orientation.

Walkers Employment Team, in association with the States of Guernsey, is delighted to announce a series of free seminars, designed for Employers. The seminars have been created to start the conversation around the current legislation and the how changes to the law might affect Employers.

Who should attend?

- » Directors from private, public and third sector employers
- » HR and Compliance
- » Independent business owners who employ staff locally
